LOCAL NEWS.

The races commence at nine o'clock this morning.

Owing to to-day being a legal holiday Bishop & Co. will not open.

The Press accepts the kind invitations from the Regatta Committee with thanks.

The Rev. E. C. Oggle is still confined to his bed, but hopes are entertained for an early recovery.

The Eclipse have changed their colors from white and pink to blue and white streamers and red letters.

There will be a hookupu this morning at the King's palace when the natives will make their annual offering to their Majesty.

One of the oarsmen of the Junior crew of the Myrtles met with an accident yesterday that will not allow him to take part in to-day's races.

The band did not play at the departure of the Mariposa last Saturday in respect to the late Lieut. R. B. Peck whose remains were on board.

The schooner Anna arrived at Hawaii on the 11th inst., being twenty-six days from San Francisco. The cargo consisted of general merchandise.

A dinner has been tendered to the members of the Kapiolani Boat Club by the Eclipse, at their boat house, to take place at noon to-day.

The brigantine Claus Spreckels, Captain Drew, sailed from Kahului on the 12th inst. for San Francisco with 3,300 sacks sugar from the Wailuku plantation.

The Saturday issue of the Press contains a complete programme of the races and entries for to-day's regatta. A complete report of the results will appear in to-morrow's issue.

To-night closes a series of excellent performances given by the Woodyear's Royal Circus. They strike tent after the show this evening, and intend taking a trip throughout the Islands.

Last Saturday night the circus gave an excellent programme, and in spite of the heavy rain, a crowded house was present. The after-piece was excruciatingly funny and served as a rare treat. To-night closes their engagement.

It is reported that although the Myrtle Boat Club first proposed to withdraw from the Association in case the Kapiolani followed, they entirely overlooked that club's right to be consulted when they concluded to rejoin the Association.

Last Saturday evening at about half-past seven o'clock a raid was made on the new Chinese Theatre on Queen street. Several Chinamen were arrested and some opium captured. The raiding force was composed of Mr. Marcos, Captain Tell and a police officer.

The following vessels are due at Kahului, Maui: Bark Ferris S. Thompson and the brig Hesperian from Hanalei, B. C., and the schooner Ida Schnauer from Humboldt, Cal., the tern Maria E. Smith, from Eureka, Cal., and the schooner Kosario from San Francisco.

Yesterday, at about noon, as Mr. James McKage, driver for the Fashion Stable, was driving across the long Waikiki bridge he noticed a small blaze coming through a hole in the bridge. Upon looking he found the planking on fire. As it had just started the fire was soon extinguished by him.

Sunday morning, His Majesty the King, Col. C. H. Judd, American Minister Merrill, Governor Dominis, Hon. S. Parker, Mr. W. H. Cornwell, Col. C. P. Lauka, Mr. A. Whiting, Mr. C. O. Berger, and several other prominent gentlemen were entertained at breakfast by Attorney-General Paul Neumann.

Secretary Fuller in his report of the International Association work, last evening presented some interesting statistics regarding the rapid advancement of the Y. M. C. A. in the United States. Since the establishment in 1851 the Association has advanced to 1000 organizations and 4,000,000 members by 1885. There are also 69 organizations with 1,600,000 members among Railroad men in the United States.

Our Kahului correspondent writes: At about 2 o'clock p. m., yesterday, November 11th, a little five-year-old Portuguese girl met with quite a painful accident. The engineer (by aid of a locomotive) was backing empty cars onto the wharf very slowly and ringing the bell all the while, when the child darted out from the end of the warehouse and attempted to cross the track and was caught between two cars, and the calf of her leg badly cut. She was immediately placed in a car and taken to the Wailuku Hospital where Dr. Sutcliffe dressed the wound. As there were no bones broken, she will probably be about in a couple of weeks. Sheriff Everitt came down to investigate the matter, and was fully convinced that the company were not in any to blame.

Our Maui Correspondent writes: We are having glorious rains on Maui and the canes are blooming out beautifully. I hear that the Japanese labor squabble has been ventilated in Norway. The Drammens Blad copies the San Francisco Chronicle which gave a curdling account of the brutality with which they were treated. The crime of the Advertiser in publishing the unconfirmed and lying complaints of the Japanese sea lawyers was infamous—and the result cannot be estimated. It will breed another lot of lies to fight when the Reciprocity is up before the next congress. The new skating rink at Paia is nearly ready for occupation. This valuable effusion is for your use but not as mine please.

Although the programme for the Regatta, which was published by authority, contained the entry of the Kapiolani Club for the cup race the following letter was received by them Saturday morning: "To the Officers and Members of the Kapiolani Boating Club: Gentlemen: I am instructed by the regatta committee of the Hawaiian Rowing and Yachting Association, to notify you that the entry of your club in the six oared race, senior crew, to take place the 16th inst., cannot be accepted under the rules of the Association, and therefore, return herewith your fee of ten dollars deposited with your entry. I have the honor to be Your Obedient Servant, J. E. Wise, Master Secretary of the Rowing Committee."

It is not very often that any of our dignified officials indulge in a public brawl, but when they do the common everyday citizen had better beware. This fact was pretty well demonstrated last Saturday evening at the Central Skating Rink. According to the report given, the young youth of quiet mien, who sells tickets or fills some other position near the entrance of the rink, passed a remark that was not to a Mr. Jones liking. Mr. Jones forthwith gave vent to his virtuous indignation by slapping that part this young youth's anatomy that is generally used in making winning smiles and bewitching glances. This young youth's papa, who was standing close by, thinking that his sacred privileges, of which he was sole proprietor by virtue of his paternity, were being intruded upon, immediately proceeded to make it Hart (hot) for the cause of his mighty wrath, by cleaning the road with him. The young youth's papa found the streets in such a bad condition that he was compelled to give up the job and consider himself not a good superintendent. The trouble finally came to an end by each blackguarding each others character to their heart, content and then separated.

Hawaii Notes.

The beautiful missionary barkentine Morning Star will be gladly welcomed on her arrival at Hilo, as well as her noble Captain.

Rain in abundance is falling in Hilo and no knowing when it will cease as it usually rains when it makes a business of it, and comes down as though it did not cost anything.

The skating rink at Hilo is being rapidly built. As there is no public hall it will be occasionally used for fairs and public meetings, and will be an accommodation until money can be secured for a public hall.

Hilo is pleased to know that her former missionary Dr. C. H. Wetmore will go on the next trip of the Morning Star to assist those who need him on the islands, and glad to know that his daughter Lucy will go with him. It will do much good to those who are doing such a grand work.

The Late Ex-Governor of Kanoe.

During the early part of this century, 1802, the late Ex-Governor P. Kanoe was born in the south eastern part of Hawaii. Very little or nothing is known of his early life. His first public position was as secretary for the old Governor Kaniamao. He held that position for a number of years; after resigning from that position he was appointed as chancellor under Dr. G. P. Judd who was then Minister of Finance, resigning to fill the Governorship of the Island of Kauai in 1847, which he held up to 1877. He then after leading a long and conscientious administration retired into private life as one of the most popular chiefs among the foreigners as well as natives in the Kingdom. He was a member of the Privy Council of State, House of Nobles, a Knight Commander of the order of Kamehameha I., also Grand Officer of the Order of Hawaii. His untimely death brought forth expressions of sympathy and respect that very few ever command. He died at the age of eighty-three years.

The funeral took place yesterday afternoon at half-past three, with the proper ceremonies. The body was escorted to the church by a detail of the Police. Leleiohoku Cavalry Guard, Ahahui Oipio Impiono Karistano o Kaumakapili, (Young Men's Christian Association of the Kaumakapili Church) Major Baker and aides, Mamalahoe, Queen's Own, King's Own, Prince's Own, King's Guard, Honolulu Rifles, also about two hundred mourners. The hearse was drawn by the Poola society by means of a long mourning covered rope. His Majesty's staff and carriage, Governor Dominis and staff, and some representatives of the Privy Council, were also in attendance.

The band lead the procession, playing in a most effective manner. The hymns "Safe in the Arms of Jesus" and "Nearer My God to Thee," awoke in the hearts of those listening many tender recollections of long ago, probably bringing to mind the sad sacred remembrances of some dear departed mother, father, brother, or sister. The Rev. H. H. Parker conducted the last sad rites, at the Kawaiahaeo Church; speaking very highly in his remarks of the many good and noble qualities of the deceased, of the strict religious life he lead, and the good fruit his zealous work brought forth. The choir rendered appropriate music that caused many eyes to be wet with tears. After services the body was interred in the same vault in the Kawaiahaeo Church yard where the remains of his mother and father now lie. He leaves a widow, and daughter, also a son who is the present Governor of Kauai.

The decorum of the troops was excellent, speaking more eloquent than words of their careful and thorough training.
